How did the Fund perform last year and what affected its performance?

For the period since inception of October 27, 2023, to May 31, 2024, the Fund performed well with stable distributions as well as share price improvement. Option premiums received from covered calls (short call position) contributed to total return.

WHAT FACTORS INFLUENCED PERFORMANCE

- Performance of Apple stock
- The amount of premiums received from writing out-of-the-money call options

Long exposure to Apple stock contributed to performance as Apple stock price rose during the period. Income generated from the covered call positions contributed to performance.

POSITIONING

The Fund maintained long exposure to Apple stock via synthetic long positions (long call options and short put options both with the same strike). The Fund wrote out-of-the-money call options, receiving premiums to generate income while allowing some upside price appreciation potential. The remaining cash was invested in U.S. T-Bills to generate additional income.

PERFORMANCE

For the period ended May 31, 2024, the Fund's performance was 8.38% (Market) and 8.30% (NAV).
